ANNOUNCEMENT

From: Lieut-Colonel T.W. CHATTEY, OBE,
PRESIDENT OF THE MIDDLESEX REGIMENTAL ASSOCIATION

To: All Members of the Regimental Association.

As I have held the role of President of our Regimental Association for a period of 14 years and am now nearing the age of 80, I feel the time has come for me to step down. Consequently I have asked Brigadier Pielow to take over and I am delighted to announce that he has agreed to do so as from 1st January 1993.

It has been a very great honour for me to have been the President of our Association and I am extremely proud to have held this position, which in fact is the successor to the old appointment of Colonel of the Regiment that existed before amalgamation and the Middlesex Regiment as such ceased to be a unit of the Regular Army.

Brigadier Tony was commissioned into the Middlesex Regiment in February 1946 and has been Chairman of the Association Executive Committee for a very considerable period. He therefore is fully conversant with our Die Hard outlook, our traditions and customs and all our affairs, and I am fully confident therefore that under his leadership and example, our Regimental Association will continue to flourish, maintain its independence and uphold the comradeship and spirit of the old Die Hards for many years to come.

I should like to take this opportunity to wish all members the very best of good luck, good fortune and every happiness in the future.

Lieut-Colonel T.W. CHATTEY, OBE

Colonel Tom Chattey has been consecutively Chairman, President and Chairman, and finally President of the Regimental Association for the past 19 years, and his decision to retire from this appointment means that we will lose a most experienced and wise leader who has been a regular attendee at all our various functions together with his wife Pam at our more social events.

His time as President has seen much change in the Army, but he has steered us safely through this disruptive period and ensured that the Association has never lost sight of its original aim to safeguard the memory of the Regiment and to help those of its former members who are in need of help for any reason.

For the past 9 years I have had the pleasure of serving as his Chairman of the Executive Committee, and I take this opportunity to pay warm tribute to the way he has always supported me in this duty and to the invariably wise counsel I have received from him – something I know I can rely on in the future as well.

His work as Chairman of the Museum Trustees has been quite outstanding and has culminated in his moving it to the National Army Museum where its continuance is assured. For this too we all owe him a tremendous debt.

'Flash' (as he has always been known to his older friends, and by me too, behind the safety of his back, when I first served with him in Austria in 1Mx in 1954) has been a life-long and stalwart Diehard ever since he joined 2Mx on commissioning in 1933 arriving in his 'flash' red sports car.

He has been a fine example to us all and we have been particularly fortunate to have had him as our President for so long. I hope he will forgive me for writing in the Newsletter about him despite a more serious warning not to do so. I felt however, that his service to the Regimental Association simply must not go without mention.

BAMP.

HONG KONG (ARGYLE STREET) POW ASSOCIATION

The Reunion took place on Saturday 3 October 1992 at the Duke of York's Headquarters, Chelsea, London SW3.

The following members of the regiment attended: Capt and Mrs J.H.S. Hudson, Capt and Mrs C.G. Webber, Mr R. Normandale and Major A.E.F. Waldron.

EAST SURREY HOSPITAL, REDHILL

On Friday 20 November Brig B.H. Marciandi, OBE, represented the Regimental Association at a ceremony at the new East Surrey Hospital at Redhill. The hospital had collected a number of plaques displayed in hospitals in the area which had been closed, and the Reigate School of Art and Design has relocated them in an attractive display in the reception area of the new hospital. One of the plaques is a tribute to a Redhill man who became one of the Regiment's great heroes; it reads:

"To the memory of Rupert Price Hallows VC, who was born at Redhill in 1881 and who gave his life for his country at Hooge in the year 1915".

Brigadier Marciandi spoke to the large gathering of local dignitaries, reading out the citation for Lt Hallows's posthumous V.C. and an extract from Gregory Blaxland's regimental history about his heroism during the period from 25 September to his death in action on 1 October 1915.

2/7th BATTALION ANNUAL REUNION

The 47th Annual Reunion of the Battalion took place at the Victory Services Club on Thursday 1 April 1992, under the Chairmanship of Lt-Col R.E. Robotham, MC, TD. There was a splendid attendance of 74, plus our two distinguished and much respected guests and friends, Lt-Col Tom Chattey and Major Frank Waldron.

The King's Colour of the Battalion, which was presented to the Battalion on its formation in 1914 and had been laid up in All Hallows Church, Tottenham, since 1922 and was very fragile, was on view, having been repaired and framed. The following day, it was taken by Major Geoffrey Bunton to be placed on permanent display at the Hornsey Historical Society, The Old Schoolhouse, 136 Tottenham Lane, London N8. Every Old Comrade present had a copy of the Colour at his seat.

Many of the increased attendance had travelled from long distances in the UK, but none further than Joe Bird, who had come for the second time in three years from America.

THE PRINCESS OF WALES'S ROYAL REGIMENT (QUEEN'S AND ROYAL HAMPSHIRE)

The Amalgamation of The Queen's Regiment and the Royal Hampshire Regiment took place as planned on 9th September. Although all battalions marked the occasion with parades, this was a quiet merger and the main celebration is planned for next summer when it is hoped that HRH The Princess of Wales will Review her Regiment for the first time.

Details of the new Regiment, previously published, remain unaltered except that it was finally agreed that the insignia should be similar to that of The Queen's Regiment with a few exceptions. The most notable of these is the cap badge, which now incorporates a Hampshire Rose beneath the Tudor Dragon and 'Princess of Wales's' instead of 'Queen's' on the scroll. In addition, a Tiger badge from the Royal Hampshires is worn between the shoulder and sleeve of the left arm. The design of the collar badge, and button incorporating the Paschal Lamb, as worn by The Queen's Regiment, are to continue unchanged in the new Regiment.

As the new cap badges will not be available until 1993 all ranks started to wear a cloth version on their khaki berets on Amalgamation Day. These berets have proved popular and they were used by the Royal Guard of Honour provided by the 1st Battalion for HRH The Princess of Wales, on 16 October, when she arrived at the Guildhall in Portsmouth to receive the Freedom of the City.

The Colonel of the Regiment, Major General Anthony Denison-Smith MBE, now has five Deputies, one for each county in the recruiting area. In the case of Middlesex, Colonel Richard Graham MBE is filling this appointment. The 1st Battalion, stationed in Colchester, is commanded by Lt-Col Mike Reeve-Tucker who will be succeeded in late 1993 by Lt-Col John Russell, and the 2nd Battalion in Canterbury is commanded by Lt-Col Mike Cooper who took over from Lt-Col David Wake MBE in mid October.

Another change of title has occurred. The 8th (Volunteer) Battalion The Queen's Fusiliers (City of London) has become 'The London Regiment' with different cap badges for each of its four rifle companies. B (Queen's Regiment) Company based in Edgware and Hornsey will at least keep alive one famous name and has, as its Honorary Colonel, Brigadier Tony Pielow JP. The other major reorganisation to our Territorial units gives the 6th/7th Battalion a company based in Portsmouth and the Isle of Wight.

The Princess of Wales's Royal Regiment has already had some notable successes. Our Free Fall Team, The Flying Dragons, were selected to represent the United Kingdom at the World Parachuting Championships in China in September where, despite several difficulties, they achieved a very satisfactory result at their first appearance on the international scene. The 2nd Battalion Team won the Army Judo Championships and, in the Cambrian Patrol Competition, the 6th/7th Battalion team won a Gold Medal in the TA Competition and a Silver in the Army Competition, while the 2nd and 3rd Battalions also won Silver Medals in the Army Championships. Finally, Lt Laurie Manton won the TA 'Photographer of the Year' Competition.

As we go to press we have just heard of the tragic death of Major John Barr who was killed in a helicopter crash in Northern Ireland. He was the first person from the new Regiment to have died and we send our deepest sympathy to his wife and family.

EL ALAMEIN 50th ANNIVERSARY TOUR

21 - 27 OCTOBER 1992

The 51st(Highland) Division announced their intention to participate in these commemorative Celebrations last November and planning commenced.

The 1/7th Bn The Middlesex Regiment(DCO) were given the honour of laying the official Highland Division wreath in appreciation of the Battalion's continuous active service contribution within the Divisions campaigns from Alamein to Tripoli, thence to Sicily and finally Normandy to Bremerhaven. Major A.B. Carter, Chairman of the 1/7th Battalion Old Comrades Association was selected for this duty.

The appointment for an accompanying Senior Warrant Officer for the wreath laying was made from within the Highland Infantry Bns and the highly respected and the most worthy choice fell upon former C.S.M. Muray J. Archibald of the 7 A & S H who was awarded the MM at Medinine and the DCM at Wadi Akarit. Major Peter Watson, MC, former navigating officer of 7 Black Watch flew out a day earlier than the main party to assist TV producer Marcus Davidson in a recon of the battlefield and was later joined by our party of accompanying 'Jocks' comprising Messrs Arthur Innis, 1 BW, Sidney Lunn, 5 BW, Stanley Mitchell, 7 Bn, 'Wattie' Angus 1 BW (whose brother was KIA at Alamein) and CSM Simpson DCM of 5 BW. Leading the REME party was Lt-Col Duncan McLean TD. Major Alan Carter accompanied the A&SH and BW party throughout and stayed in the same hotels.

Barry King formerly HQ Company 1/7th and his wife Lyn from Adelaide joined the party.

On Sunday the official ceremony took place at the British and Commonwealth War Graves Cemetery from 1130 to 1230 hours. It was a very moving ceremony attended by HRH Duke of Kent and Mr John Major the Prime Minister. 3000-4000 people from the Commonwealth took part. This cemetery contains 8400 War dead and is beautifully set out in formal rows with Regimental Crests, names and regimental details and with family epithets at the base in many cases. This layout expressed an overwhelming feeling of comradeship in battle. Major Carter writes "I was deeply moved to find the grave of my former 4 Platoon, A Company Sgt F.E. Bolitho aged 26 years." At the end of the Service our small Highland Division party marched forward to the Memorial headed by CSM Murray Archibald and myself. We then laid the official Highland Division wreath. Barry King laid the 1/7th Middlesex Regiment badged wreath. Capt J.G. Sanderson of 5/7 Gordons later laid a Gordons wreath.

Listed below are the names of members of the 1/7th Bn buried in this cemetery with their grave location:

We then returned to Cairo and the Movenpick Hotel, our last night in Egypt. Next day Tuesday 27 October I arrived at Heathrow where I was met by Capt and Mrs Harry Abbott and spent the night at their home in Ealing.

On Friday 30 October I attended (representing the 1/7th Bn) the Alamein 51st Highland Division Dinner at the Banqueting Hall in Edinburgh Castle, where I had the pleasure of meeting Capt John Laurence of the pre war 7th Bn vintage who had later served in 61st A/Tank R.A. Regiment in 51 HD. Of 98 present 65 were former 8th Army Veterans; of these 65 members 33 had actually been present at the battle. A memorable occasion presided over by Lt-Gen Sir Derek Lang, KCB, DSO, MC, DL, the Normandy 1944 Commanding Officer of 5 Camerons and later GOC Scotland.

The Editor thanks Major Alan Carter for his very full report and regrets that it was necessary to edit harshly due to lack of space.

Elizabeth Hewitt, wife of Tony Hewitt, writes from Australia to inform me they were in Hong Kong during October. They were taking part in the making of a Documentary Film on the first five nights of Tony's escape from the POW Camp to the border with China, an emotional experience for Tony to follow the escape route again. It is astonishing that the escapers managed to cross the rugged mountain country at night even with the help of the moon, which was their LAMPLIGHT TO FREEDOM. That is now the title of the film. The film making was a great success and the English crew have become staunch friends. We had a marvellous time in Hong Kong, but the foreboding communist takeover in 1997 is reminiscent of the situation before the war, with Japan waiting on the Border to destroy us.

Editor: Sadly both Douglas Scriven, Regimental Medical Officer and Eddy Crossley, New Zealand Air Force Officer, co-escapees, have both passed on.

Col Andrew and Ursula Man had a miraculous escape on Saturday 1 September when a mini whirlwind swept over their home. They were awoken by the sound of slates being ripped off their roof at Castle Croft, Ludchurch. The whole house seemed to be shaking, it was very frightening. There was an almighty crash and the sycamore which had stood for 100 years was snapped in half and then blown through a window. Damage costs would be at least £8,000. The locals rushed round to assist and were a great help.

Brig Brian Marciandi is now Chairman of the Greater London North West (Middlesex) Branch of SSAFA/FHS. This includes eight Divisions, the boroughs of Barnet, Brent, Ealing, Enfield, Haringey, Harrow, Hillingdon and Hounslow, generally covering the old county of Middlesex. The work of SSAFA/FHS is steadily increasing and former Diehards and their dependants can call on it for help if in need. There is a severe shortage of volunteers to do all the tasks SSAFA performs, particularly caseworkers and divisional treasurers. Any Diehards, and their wives, who live in the area, have some spare time and would like to help old servicemen and their families, should ring the Brigadier on 081-994-2019 or write to him at 148 Watchfield Court, Chiswick, London W4 4NE.

He joined the 1st Bn from Sandhurst on 10 February 1957 in Cyprus, joining A Company followed by D and then Support Company Mortars. In October 1963 he was posted to the All Arms Junior Leaders Regiment, Tonfanau remaining till August 1965. He rejoined the 1st Bn and was appointed Adjutant October 1966 and held this appointment when 4 Queens came into being. Service with the Queens Regiment followed. Peter was a great all round sportsman excelling at Rugby, Shooting, Athletics (Hammer, Discus, Shot, Javelin and Swimming). On retirement he became the Services Liaison Officer at Hannover an appointment he held up to the time of death.

The funeral on 9 October 1992 was private but a memorial service was held on Friday 23 October at St Antonius Church, Hannover. Major Ian Lloyd attended and represented the Officers' Club and Regimental Association, accompanied by Lt-Col Mike Newall who is an RO at HQ BAOR. The Memorial Service was very well attended by both British and German service and civilian friends and colleagues, the Church was packed. The Service was simple and very moving helped by the Band of the Royal Tank Regiment which played Soldiers of the Queen as Ingrid, and the family left the Church. The tributes to Peter, both verbal and written have been very numerous.

Ian Lloyd writes 'What can one say about the passing of a friend and comrade, particularly one who was such a larger than life character. No one who met Peter was untouched by the Meeting, he was loved and respected by all and will be sorely missed.'

Every Diehard who has served since 1956 knew 'Cheese', admired him and always enjoyed his sparkling company. We will all remember his sense of humour, the attention he showed to others and more lately the incredibly brave way he coped with the disability that finally beat him.

But of course, it is not only we in the Regiment who will miss him and remember him with such genuine affection – he was known to many others thanks to his prowess on the sports field, and his ability to master German which enabled him to spread the British military way of life amongst members of the Bundeswehr, who have paid such warm tributes to him and his work.

'Cheese' was a gentleman soldier if there ever was one.

Our deepest sympathy to his wife Ingrid, daughters Claudia and Julia, and family.

PIELOU – On 7 April 1992, Captain Patrick John Alan Pielou (385083), at Larnaca, Cyprus, aged 63 years. Patrick, brother of Tony (although he spelt his name differently) was always very proud of being a Diehard. He served with the 2nd Bn in Palestine July 1947 until June 1948 and in the 1st Bn on the amalgamation of the two Bns, and took part in Public Duties in London District until December 1948. He then left the army for a while. On 2 April 1951 he joined the 7th Bn T.A. and later moved to 47 Brigade HQ as Captain. In January 1965 he was granted a Short Service Regular Commission with the Army Catering Corps, retiring in April 1980. At heart he was very much an Infantryman. He was more often to be found in the Field, up Welsh or Scottish mountains, on Exercises in Norway and Greece or sailing in the army yachts. His idea of catering was providing sustenance in a flooded trench halfway up a mountain. A more rugged soldier never joined the ACC (except perhaps David Pike who also stirred up Aldersot at one time!). I met up with Patrick again in S.W. District HQ, Taunton. In those days Wednesday afternoons were still for sports, so Patrick organised forced marches over the hills of Exmoor, preferably in fog, by compass. Later in retirement he and I continued regular hill walking. His chief interest then became leading Ex-Service Pilgrimages to battlefields and Commonwealth War Cemeteries, many Diehards going with him to Israel, Greece, Crete, El Alamein, Thailand, Singapore, Malaya and Hong Kong. I went on a memorable, but arduous trip with him to Burma last October. He was such an excellent leader of these expeditions. Only a month before he died he took a party of 50 to Singapore (50th Anniversary), Malaya and again to Hong Kong. A true Diehard he believed in paying homage to all those who died and suffered in the war, particularly the Diehards in Hong Kong. He laid wreaths for many relatives and took photos of graves for those who could not travel. He was planning a pilgrimage to Korea, which hopefully may still be organised.

His funeral in Taunton was private for close friends and family. The Regimental Flag draped his coffin, which was carried by his son Sean and three Diehards; brother Tony, Chris Mieville and myself. Tony and Patricia Lofts and Bernard Chalkley (Para) represented all those many who joined his Pilgrimages. Instead of flowers generous donations in his memory were given to Royal British Legion Poppy Fund and the Burma Star Association. His ashes have been scattered in the Quantock Hills near his home.

A true Diehard of great character, very sadly missed. Our deep sympathy goes to Patricia and all his family.

MAIL & GRAPEVINE

Mrs Patricia Pielou, Court Cottage, 9 West Street, Bishops Lydeard, Taunton, Somerset TA4 3AU.

It is with sorrow that I must tell you of the death of my husband Patrick, who died on April 7th. We were in Cyprus on holiday. Patrick suffered a cerebral vascular accident. At first, fighting back as you may imagine! He seemed to be making good progress. Indeed we both expected to be able to return to our hotel within a few days, but gradually he began to sleep more and more until at last he slipped gently and sweetly from this life to the next. Our dear son, Sean, was with us; the chaplain to 3 Queens (serving in Cyprus at that time) praying with us. Our younger daughter Shelley had flown out too and had spent time with her father. Our elder daughter's pregnancy was too far advanced to make the long flight from New York advisable but she and our son-in-law were in close touch. Patrick died at peace with God and with himself. He had served his fellow men well. In particular he cared for those who had suffered cruelty, deprivation and humiliation while held as prisoners of war. I know our Lord has a good man in Patrick.

P.S. Our first grandchild is a beautiful little girl. May she be blessed with some of her grandfather's fine qualities.
